

EATING THE RAINBOW

Eating many different fruits and vegetables is important for providing your little one with essential nutrients.

To help make fruit and vegetable fun and to encourage your child to 'Eat the rainbow', try building some fruit and vegetable skewers with them.

This encourages your child to pick food from each colour, while also making it visually appealing and fun to eat.

